

Sharing Our Faith

I'm away today, feasting on spiritual food at Polishing the Pulpit. I look forward to seeing you all on Wednesday as the GENESIS class resumes.

The 'HE SHALL BE CALLED' sermon series will resume September 3rd. Meanwhile, I will feature in my bulletin articles a few of the other names & titles of Jesus that will not be covered in the sermon series. Today it is FAITHFUL WITNESS.

Here are two valuable lessons: (1) we must feed our faith and starve our doubts, (2) and the best way to feed our faith is focus it on the Lord's promises. We will never face situations for which the Lord has not already given us certain promises in advance.

The way to overcome adversity is to search the Scriptures for the specific promises that relate to our need, focusing on them with mind and heart, claiming them by faith, and trusting Jesus to be as good as His Word because He is the FAITHFUL WITNESS.

This title for Jesus comes from Revelation 1:5 as Jesus shares this last message with John and His church. The entire Bible is reliable because Jesus is a credible, believable, FAITHFUL WITNESS. His Word cannot be broken. It is secure in heaven and given to us here on earth.

When I'm troubled, I open the Bible and I plunge in, asking Jesus to give me the word I need for the moment and so often, He does exactly that! It's remarkable, how a verse, a phrase, a cross-reference, or a sentence, after meditating on it, can bring hope and peace. Instead of allowing my mind to obsess about my problems, I'm learning to focus it on the Lord and on His promise to be my FAITHFUL WITNESS.

Finally, He will be our FAITHFUL WITNESS to confess us as His own on that great Judgement Day (Matthew 10:32-33).
