“If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.”

The Election: What It All Comes Down To – Part 5

In this final Prayer Report before Election Day next Tuesday, we will complete this series on what the election all comes down to. We have been answering this question: besides the names of the candidates, what is really on the ballot in this year’s election? What is the 2024 election all about?

In previous weeks, we have seen that this election is about liberty versus tyranny. One of the smartest and most successful men in America, Elon Musk, has said this election could launch us (no pun intended) toward a Marxist state, controlled entirely by one party. Musk is currently campaigning every day in Pennsylvania for Donald Trump. That tells you a lot. You can link to a very brief video clip of what President Trump had to say about the urgency of this year’s election in Part 1 of this series.

In Part 2 and Part 3 of this series, we saw that this election comes down to whether the American people want secure borders versus open borders. This is, without question, the most important issue facing the nation right now, because it is an existential issue. No nation can long endure an open border. Kamala Harris, and the administration she has been part of for the last four years, has opened the border wide open. Over 12 million people have entered the country under the so-called “catch and release” policy of the Biden administration. Under this policy, illegal immigrants are held for 72 hours and then released into the country. They are provided transportation by air or bus to the city of their choice. In another part of the plan, immigrants from certain countries can schedule their own flight into our country using an app on their phone. They never even have to stop at the border. They fly right over the border on the way to the cities of their choice. Early in the Biden administration, Harris was given the responsibility of overseeing the border. She was called the “Border Czar”. As a result of her weak administrative oversight and leadership, not only have millions entered the country, thousands of those who have entered are known criminals, murderers and rapists, and hundreds are known to be terrorists. Most people think the open border is just a plot by Democrats to gain more voters, and it is that, but it is much more than that. It is all part of a United Nations plan promoted by globalist Marxists to destabilize and undermine the power and position of the United States in the world. It is a plan fully supported by China and the U.S. Democrat Party. You can read all about it in Part 2 and Part 3 of this series (see links above). A cornerstone of Donald Trump’s campaign, of course, is that he will not only close the border, but will also begin a mass deportation of the illegal aliens who have entered the country. There could be no more defining issue than this. The very nature of our way of life is at stake.

In Part 4 of this series, we saw how the election will come down to discernment versus derangement about Donald Trump. Other than Jesus, there has never been a more lied about man than Donald Trump. He's not perfect, but he is not the evil man the Marxist Media¹ would have you believe. He is not a Nazi. He is not a threat to democracy. He is not the devil incarnate going about to do evil. He is not the Anti-Christ. Robert F. Kennedy, Jr., in a campaign event in Glendale, Arizona on October 31st explained how the media is causing division in our country because of their false and negative coverage of President Trump. Kennedy described how everyone who meets President Trump in person loves him. (The entire speech is great, but the referenced remarks begin at the 25:00-minute mark.) But instead of loving him, nearly half the country hates him and has Trump Derangement Syndrome, because they only know President Trump through the distorted lens of the Marxist Media.

It All Comes Down to Good versus Evil

There are other issues in play as far as what it will come down to. It will come down to election integrity versus voter fraud. Already there have been incidents of attempted voter fraud by Democrats in Michigan, Arizona, Colorado, Georgia, Pennsylvania, and Virginia. The Republicans seem to have infrastructure in place this time to monitor and detect attempted fraud in a far greater way than they did in 2020 or 2022. Hopefully, the fraud perpetrated by the Democrats this time won't be determinative in the outcome, as it was four years ago. But with the use of voting and tabulating machines in counting the votes, and the lack of transparency that comes with those machines, there is no guarantee we won't have another stolen election. The machines need to go. They need to be done away with completely! Paper ballots need to be hand counted on a single election day so there can be a secure chain of custody for each ballot. And purged voter rolls and voter I.D. are a must! Some progress has been made, but the battle for election integrity must continue in the future.

The very fact that one party is the party of voter fraud² and the other party must always fight to stop it, highlights that this election comes down to good versus evil. One party also tells blatant and obvious lies and their accomplices in the Marxist Media support them in their lying. One party is for legalized abortion until the moment of birth, and they want it paid for with tax dollars. One party is for all the mindless radical woke ideology – transgender surgeries and hormone blockers for children without their parents consent. One party is for economic policies that make life unbearable and almost unlivable for millions and millions of working-class people – (a great form of evil). One party wants open borders that allow evil people to move in among us to murder and rape, and otherwise create havoc in our society. And one party wants godless Marxism to replace our God-given liberty. The choice couldn't be clearer. If we've ever had an election that could be described as good versus evil, this is it!

¹ The Marxist Media includes all the so-called mainstream media outlets such ABC, CBS, NBC, CNN, MSNBC, The New York Times, The Washington Post, the Associated Press, etc. We refer to these as the Marxist Media because the journalists who work at these corporate media outlets have all been trained in our Marxist institutions of higher learning, which now includes most of the colleges and universities throughout the land. These journalists are active participants in the Marxist plot to destroy our way of life and deconstruct the constitutional republic we have been under for 235 years.

² Democrats are against voter I.D. and want illegal aliens to vote. They want drop boxes, ballot harvesting and multiple days after the election to keep counting votes until they find (create) enough ballots to win. This madness must come to an end!
