Some of Anne's Business Success Books

4 Steps to Stop Procrastinating and Start Producing Bigger Results!

Apply these Concepts and You Can

1. Accomplish More in Less Time
2. Get More and Better Clients
3. Increase Your Confidence
4. Increase Your Focus on Your Goals and Achieve Even More
5. Be Even More Motivated to Help You Reduce Procrastination

Meet Matt

“I hate to admit this, but I got in a bit of a rut mentally. For some strange reason, things just weren’t clicking for me. So, I felt I needed a coach to hold me accountable and get me back on my path. Within just a few weeks after hiring Anne, not only were things clicking again but I was on a roll like the tide. In less than 3 weeks, I got the lost momentum back in my business. I could list a whole book of accomplishments, if I had the time. The Bottom line is this: If Anne ever has any slots available for her coaching, don’t walk but run to get it. It was one of the best investments I’ve ever made. Thanks Anne!”

– Matt Bacak

Meet Matt

“After 18 years of successfully flying by the seat of my pants when it came to running my business, and running my life for that matter, I found myself in a rut I just could not get out of. In the past, I would procrastinate at best ...I always knew in my head what I wanted to achieve, but never put anything down on paper or mapped out any sort of plan. Anne’s coaching really opened my eyes when it comes to planning and goal setting. I am on my way to achieving all I want to achieve in regards to my career, financial, and personal goals. I am already achieving results that I surely would not have achieved if it were not for Anne.” —Matt Barcus

Procrastination Kills Productivity ...

"Do you know what happens
when you give a procrastinator
a good idea? Nothing."

- Donald Gardner

Is Lack of Motivation Stopping You From Getting Things Done?

"We must all suffer from one of two pains: the pain of discipline or the pain of regret. The difference is discipline weighs ounces while regret weighs tons."

You Know Procrastination When You See It

If you don't tolerate procrastination from others, why would you ever tolerate procrastination from yourself?

No One is Perfect and Completely Procrastination-Free

1. Procrastinators are often overly optimistic about completing complex tasks in little time.
2. Thinks and says they work best under pressure.
3. Easily distracted and loses focus when there is no urgency.
4. Delayed start.
5. When no progress has been made, they offer reassurance that everything is under control.
6. Action driven by panic.
7. Scrambles last minute, working hours on end to complete a project minutes before the deadline.

3 Questions to Think About

1. Do you recognize any of these signs in employees, peers or children?

YES NO

2. How many of the characteristics that we just talked about have you experienced at any time in your personal or professional life?

0-1 2-4 5-7

3. How often do you find yourself exhibiting any of these procrastination habits?

Rarely

Sometimes

Frequently

Procrastination Can Be Caused By...

- Low Self-Confidence
- Perfectionist
- Rebellion
- Manipulation
- Coping with Pressure
- Fear of the Unknown

Meet Randy

“Thank you for making such a profound impact on my personal and business life in such a short period of time. I have invested in other coaching programs that were valuable, but none of them generated the results and ROI as fast as you have. You are amazing! In only 5 months, not only has my health improved but you also have significantly impacted my business, and brought balance to my life. For example, from just one of your suggestions, I have already earned $60,000 from a client that previously would have paid me $5,000. A strategic alliance partner that I approached as a result of one of our coaching sessions conservatively will generate over $1,000,000 during the next 18 months. Without reservation, I recommend your coaching services and learning resources. For any high-achiever who wants to reach to the next level...they’re thinking too small!”

“Our time together has helped me to be very intentional about my goals and to be honest about what it will take to meet them. I would say that one of the biggest changes you’ve helped to make is in my thinking in regards to going after larger opportunities. You’ve shared many times that it takes just as much time to work on smaller prospects as it does large ones. This has brought great clarity to my time and focus, and has helped me make President’s Club for the last 4 years in a row. I would recommend you to anyone that is looking to break through their ceiling of limitation.”
