

forget) the higher vision. The enemy shamelessly seeks to replace God as the reference point of our lives. His constant provocations demand constant reactions that consume his victim's days and nights. When, instead, we keep the faith and cleave to the higher moral code, we bring God into this lowly below. And that is a radical act with repercussions that are impossible to fathom. If the purpose of creation is

