How to Win Over Your Listeners with Stories: Discover 3 Top Ways to Inspire People to Action

Those who tell stories rule the world. Think about it. All the great communicators throughout history use stories.

Yet, most people in business just talk using boring concepts and facts. If you can learn to balance that with stories and examples, you'll notice people's engagement go up dramatically.

During this lively, entertaining and practical keynote you will be introduced to Carla Rieger's top 3 tools for engaging and inspiring your listeners. You discover how to use stories, anecdotes and well-placed examples to:

- move people from distracted to focused when you share ideas
- help people understand a complex message more quickly
- shift people from inaction and fear, to action and certainty

Experience the power of engaging your listeners no matter what the topic

Storytelling in Business: 7 Secrets to Being a Master Storyteller Who Can Motivate People to Take Action on Your Message

Ever feel like people aren't really listening when you talk?

During this lively and interactive breakout session or workshop you will get going on stories, anecdotes and examples that you can use right away. For example when:

- * sharing ideas at team meetings
- * marketing your offerings
- * giving presentations live or online
- * meeting people at networking events

The problem is that many people don't understand what makes for an engaging story, how to structure and deliver it for best impact. During this session you will discover how to:

- * avoid the top 7 mistakes that storytellers in business make
- * use a 7-step template for creating stories that people remember
- * start on a great story for your next business conversation or presentation

Experience the magic of how to create captivating stories quickly, as you need them.

I was able to use what learned from you immediately in my work, which is rare in a speaker.

- Simon Wong, Program Director, National Management Consultants Assoc.

This was one of the most awesome presentations I've ever attended. I now feel I have communication tools I can use immediately.

- Natalie Pasin, Director of Human Resources, Envision Financial

Carla, with her humour, intelligence and sensitivity to group dynamics was an invaluable resource for our workshop session.

- Linda Cattelan, Systems VP, TD Canada Trust Bank

This far exceeded my expectations. Carla truly walks her talk. It was engaging, inspiring and practical!
