Whether you arrived here decades ago or just yesterday, you stayed in Nashville because there is something unique here that unites us, and has made this the vibrant, welcoming, and growing city it is today.

We are a city with a generous spirit and an open door.
In our best moments, we embrace openness, honesty and a deep, collective desire and active commitment to strengthen the community we share.

And we are a city that is powerful beyond measure when we think and act together;
No matter what we believe, where we come from, or what our differences might be.

TODAY, WE MUST BE CATALYSTS FOR UNITY:

We resolve that if fate leads someone to Nashville, we will embrace them as our own.
We resolve that if someone speaks ill of our neighbors, we will remind them that is not our way.
We resolve to challenge ill-informed or hateful speech before it becomes reality.
We resolve that where there is conflict, we will settle it peacefully.
No matter what the rest of the world may say or do, let us remember one thing:

WE ARE NASHVILLE:
PLEAS JOIN US.
BE PART OF THE SOLUTION.

NASHVILLE UNITES
Nashville Unites was conceived by Bishop Joseph Walker and the late Francis Guzus as an effort to assure Nashville is prepared to respond to some of the social, eco-economic and neighborhood issues that have affected other cities recently by emphasizing civic responsibility, civic dialogue, and constructive participation.
