

Premier Mortuary Services

General Price List

These prices are effective as of February 1st, 2023

The goods and services in this price sheet are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Our Commitment to You

Premier Mortuary Services is an organization founded on the vision that all of us should have access to professional and affordable end-of-life services; services that can reflect our own personal values and individual resources. Our staff has the understanding and experience to help individuals and families avoid the confusion, the sales pressure and the high expense often associated with funeral arrangements. We are committed to provide simple, dignified, and professional burial and cremation options to every family we are privileged to serve. We are committed to help ease the stress on your family and loved ones during the most difficult time.

Our Mission Statement

Premier Mortuary Services mission is to offer affordable and compassionate end-of-life arrangements to families who have suffered a loss of a loved one.

***Unless a payment plan or pre-need contract has been otherwise agreed upon with the funeral director, payment in full is required at the arrangement conference.

***If arrangements and payment is not completed within three days, then the discount cremation packages do not apply and prices will be itemized off the price list.

Washington State RCW Laws Regarding Cremation & Disposition of Your Loved One

RCW 68.50.160

Right to control disposition of remains - Liability of funeral establishment or cemetery authority - Liability for cost.

- 1) A person has the right to control the disposition of his or her own remains without the pre-death or post-death consent of another person. A valid written document expressing the decedent's wishes regarding the place or method of disposition of his or her remains, signed by the decedent in the presence of a witness, is sufficient legal authorization for the procedures to be accomplished.
- 2) Prearrangements that are prepaid or filed with a licensed funeral establishment or cemetery authority, under RCW 18.39.280 through 18.39.345 and chapter 68.46 RCW are not subject to cancellation or substantial revision by survivors. Absent actual knowledge of contrary legal authorization under this section, a licensed funeral establishment or cemetery authority shall not be held criminally nor civilly liable for acting upon such prearrangements.
- 3) If the decedent has not made a prearrangement as set forth in subsection 2) of this section or the costs of executing the decedent's wishes regarding the disposition of the decedent's remains exceeds a reasonable amount or directions have not been given by the decedent, the right to control the disposition of the remains of a deceased person vests in, and the duty of disposition and the liability for the reasonable cost preparation, care and disposition of such remains devolves upon the following in the order named:
  - A) The person designated by the decedent as authorized to direct disposition as listed on the decedent's United States department of defense record of emergency data, DD form 93, or its successor form, if the decedent died while serving in military service as described in 10 U.S.C. Sec. 1481 A) 1)-8) in any branch of the United States armed forces, United States reserve forces or nation guard;
  - B) The designated agent of the decedent as directed through a written document signed and dated by the decedent in the presence of a witness. The direction of the designated agent is sufficient to direct the type, place and method of disposition;
  - C) The surviving spouse or state registered domestic partner;
  - D) The majority of the surviving adult children of the decedent;
  - E) The surviving parents of the decedent;
  - F) The majority of the surviving siblings of the decedent;
  - G) A court-appointed guardian for the person at the time of the person's death.
- 4) If any person to whom the right of control has vested pursuant to subsection 3) of this section has been arrested or charged with first or second degree murder or first degree manslaughter in connection with the decedent's death, the right of control is relinquished and passed on in accordance with subsection 3) of this section.
- 5) If a cemetery authority as defined in RCW 68.04.190 or a funeral establishment licensed under chapter 18.39 RCW has made a good faith effort to locate the person cited in subsection 3) A) through G) of this section or the legal representative of the decedent's estate, the cemetery authority or funeral establishment shall have the right to rely on an authority to bury or cremate the human remains, executed by the most responsible party available and the cemetery authority or funeral establishment may not be held criminally or civilly liable for burying or cremating the human remains. In the event any government agency or charitable organization provides the funds for the disposition of any human remains, the cemetery authority or funeral establishment may not be held criminally or civilly liable for cremating the human remains.
- 6) The liability for the reasonable cost of preparation, care and disposition devolves jointly and severally upon all kin of the decedent in the same degree of kindred, in the order listed in subsection 3) of this section and upon the estate of the decedent.
