Why choose Bayshore Cremations?

After being in the funeral business for over 45 years, we have noticed a change in funeral trends. Cremation has become a popular choice for bereaved families. Cremation may be a choice due to a financial situation or simply because a life was celebrated over the years, and no fanfare is necessary. No matter what the reason, we are able to help you plan the perfect cremation service.

However, if you should want to explore other funeral options, we are also affiliated with a full service funeral home.
