Love Funeral Home's commitment to you:

Founded in 1930, Scott Family Services is proud to be family-owned and operated to this day. Fourth generation funeral directors, William W. "Billy" Scott and Aaron M. Scott, have carried on their family's legacy by providing exceptional service and care to the families of their community.

"At Love Funeral Home, we take great pride in caring for our families, and will work tirelessly to provide you with a beautiful, lasting tribute for your loved one."

GENERAL PRICE LIST

These Prices are effective as of July 1, 2025

(Prices are subject to change without notice)

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Funeral Director Services

Basic Services of Funeral Director and Staff

Our non-declinable fee for the services of funeral directors and staff includes, but is not limited to 24 hour availability for staff to respond to initial request for service; arrangement conference with family or responsible party; employee salaries, insurance and benefits; preparation and filing of necessary certificates and permits; recording vital statistics; preparation and placement of obituary notices; preparation of services; and coordination of service with cemetery, crematory, vault companies and others as required. Also included in this charge are overhead expenses relative to our facility such as insurance, maintenance and utility expenses, secretarial and administrative costs, equipment and inventory expenses, and government compliances.

This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains.)

.....$ 2,650.00

Embalming of the deceased

Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial.

.....$ 1,195.00

Preparation of the deceased

This includes dressing, hairdressing, cosmetics, and casketing of the deceased. Special restorative care, if needed, will be provided at no additional cost to the family.

Payment Policy

Scott Family Services wants to give each family a clear and concise understanding of the financial matters related to the services they choose.

Our experience shows that families like to know their options and how payment is expected. It is our commitment to you to offer selections and services in many price ranges for you to choose from.

All financial arrangements for the funeral or memorial services must be settled prior to any public announcement of arrangements by the funeral home. Because of FEDERAL TRUTH IN LENDING LAWS, Scott Family Services is unable to provide in-house financing or monthly payment arrangements at the time of service. You may wish to contact your personal financial institution to provide financing if one of the following options does not meet your needs.

You may select one or a combination of the following options:

- Payment with Cash, Good Check, MasterCard, Visa, Discover, or American Express card.
- Payment by assignment of insurance by the current beneficiary. The company must be able to confirm with the funeral home and cooperate with the payment of proceeds in a collateralized assignment.
- Paid Pre-Need funeral plans
