The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Prior to drafting any contract for goods or services, the responsible party or the decedent's survivor who is handling the funeral arrangements is entitled to receive a copy of any pre-need agreement in the possession of the funeral establishment that has been signed and paid for, in full or in part, by or on behalf of the decedent.

To provide the services requested, it is necessary for financial arrangements to be settled before the remains are casketed or cremated. We accept cash, American Express, Discover, Mastercard, Visa, money orders and cashier's checks. We do not offer payment plans nor accept postdated checks.

ALL CREDIT CARD CUSTOMERS, ADD 4% OF TOTAL TO FINAL COST.

The survivor/responsible party of the deceased is entitled to a copy of any paid preneed agreement in possession of the funeral establishment

Disclaimer and Warranties:

Ferrara Colonial Mortuary makes no representations or warranties regarding caskets, outer burial containers, or other funeral goods sold by the funeral home. The only warranties expressed or implied, granted in connection with the goods sold with this funeral service are the expressed written warranties, if any, extended by the manufacturer thereof. No other warranties, expressed or implied, including the implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, are extended by Ferrara Colonial Mortuary.

In most areas of the country, state or local law does not require that you buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container, so that the grave will not sink in. A grave liner or a burial vault will usually satisfy these requirements.

Ferrara Colonial Mortuary is not responsible for delays in service due to the failure of the physician to discharge their duty to complete the medical portions of the death certificate within 15 hours of death, or if incomplete or inadequate information is provided by the physician or next of kin. Additional attempts to obtain a physician's signature will result in additional charges. Burial or cremation cannot take place until a valid death certificate is filed with the county health department and a disposition permit is issued.

Ferrara Colonial Mortuary is not responsible for delays in shipping of remains due to failure of the physician to provide adequate causes for the death certificate, delays in paperwork processing by the consulates of foreign governments, and unavailability of ground or air transportation.

Ferrara Colonial Mortuary accepts no responsibility for jewelry or other valuables left with the deceased while the deceased is in view of the general public.

Funeral processions on public streets or roads must be escorted in accordance with guidelines set forth by local law enforcement agencies. Therefore, Ferrara Colonial Mortuary is authorized, if applicable, to order at their discretion, sufficient escorts for this service. Additional charges for this service, if any, not included on the original agreement will be added at the prevailing rate.
