*Don't cry for me now I have died, for I'm still here I'm by your side,
My body's gone but my soul is here, please don't shed another tear,
I am still here I'm all around, only my body lies in the ground.*

I am the snowflake that kisses your nose,

I am the frost, that nips your toes.

I am the sun, bringing you light,

I am the star, shining so bright.

I am the rain, refreshing the earth,

I am the laughter, I am the mirth.

I am the bird, up in the sky,

I am the cloud, that's drifting by.

I am the thoughts, inside your head,

While I'm still there, I can't be dead.

Obituary

Ramon KaVon Davis was born in San Diego, California on February 25th, 1986 to Kenneth Allen and Enrika Davis. Ramon's mother passed away when he was only 8 years old. Ramon loved spending time with his friends and family. He always had a passion for music and basketball. At the age of 14, Ramon received the gift of a loving and devoted step mother when his father, Kenneth, met his wife, Julie Allen. Julie raised him just like she raised her own children. Ramon loved his siblings with all of his heart. Family was everything to Ramon. He worked at Alpha Project with his dad and younger brother, KaVon. Ramon's life was forever changed on January 25th, 2020 when his daughter Ra'Nala Davis came into this world. Anyone who knew Ramon knew that she was his whole heart. He loved his baby girl more than anything in the world.

In September of 2021 Ramon was diagnosed with heart failure. Despite the best efforts of his physicians, his condition continued to decline. On May 5th, 2022 Ramon left us to be with God and his mother.

Ramon is survived by his father, Kenneth Allen; his step mother, Julie Allen; his daughter, Ra'Nala Davis, his brothers; Wayne Allen, KaVon Allen, and Ka'Marrion Allen; his sister, Katrina Daniels; his grandmother, Verita Allen; and numerous cousins, aunts, uncles and friends.

Honorable pallbearers: KaVon Allen, Wayne Allen, Ka'Marrion Allen, Katrina Daniels, Bry'onna Mann, and Solomon Trujillo
