The family of Jaquis Moo Moo Holiday wishes to express our sincere appreciation for all the prayers, phone calls, visits and many other acts of kindness shown during our time of grief.

Gone but not forgotten

You never got to say Goodbye
You never said I'm leaving
You never said goodbye
You were gone before I knew it
And only God knew why
A million times I needed you
A million times I cried
If love alone could have saved you
You would have never died
In life I love you dearly
In death love you still
In my heart you hold a place
That no one can fill

It broke my heart to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of me with you
The day God took you home

Obituary

Jaquis Marquon “Moo Moo” Holiday but “Ja” know to his siblings as “Poppa” or “Poopie” was born June 2, 1998, to Juka Sr. and Janice Holiday in San Diego, CA. He was the youngest and the baby of 9 other siblings. He was a Son, Brother, Uncle, Nephew, Cousin, Grandson. Jaquis had his whole life ahead of him. He was caring. He was kind. He was loving and a person that lit up every room he walked into. A character, meaning goofy. Jaquis was a boxer and a trainer, an athlete and even a Boycott. He worked plenty of jobs from security at the club, construction, moving and hauling. He always strove for the best no matter what he went through. He overcame plenty of obstacles that tried to hold him back, but he always reminded as himself no matter what. He was our superhero. Our baby was always there. He will forever live on. Long live Jaquis Holiday.
