THE Life OF EDWARD JAMES ROBBINS

Before Sunrise May 8th, 2022, Edward James Robbins Sr., also known as Eddie to family and friends, was unexpectedly taken from us. Born February 13th, 1986, in San Diego, CA, Edward obtained his education the same place he grew up. His first years began at Webster elementary, moving on to Horace Mann Middle and he ended his education at Crawford High School.

Edward was a King by nature and a solider at heart. A loving protective family man who had a smile to light up a room with dimples to match. With a swag like no other, when you saw Edward, you saw the latest fashion. If he was to symbolize a color it would be blue because of the loyalty, inspiration, and confidence he showed throughout his life.

At a young age, he found joy in playing baseball and was an avid skateboarder who had the ability to go pro. A lifetime lover of music and art, he became a self-made tattoo artist leaving his creativity on many family members and friends who will forever be a canvas for his artwork. An entrepreneur by trade, he displayed the ability to conquer anything he put his mind to.

Edward is survived by his mother and father, Charisse Brown and James Edward Robbins; Siblings, Darnell Wyatt Jr, Porschia Wyatt, Corey Anderson, Marquis Anderson, and Maikylah Parker; His six sons, Edward Robbins Jr. (17) , Kingston James Robbins (11), Jhay'Ciyon Devol James Robbins (11), Knowledge James Robbins (8), Zyier James Robbins (5), Mateo Anthony Robbins (1); Wife; Tasha Moore, Grandmother; Betty Russell, Brother-in-law; Greg Castile, The mother of his children and a plethora of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

They say, "Heavy is the head that wears the crown", you no longer must carry that heavy burden. Sleep peacefully King until we meet again, we will forever keep your memory alive!

We love you and forever got you Coy

RECESSIONAL

LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.
