Obituary

Walter Bailey was born October 30, 1974.

He was raised by his Aunt Donna and his sister Nena in San Diego, CA.

Walter had a hard life, but he loved life and everything that made him. He was the most kind and understanding person you would ever meet. He was a hard worker and loved his daughter Olajynae and his sister Nena dearly.

He expressed his self through his music (Reggae being his favorite).

He loved to laugh and watch comedies.

He took pride in the way he dressed and loved his shoes.

He would not step out the house without his clothes pressed and looking fresh.

He was a true friend to anyone he loved and he would go out on a limb for you.

All he ever wanted was to love and to be loved.

On October 16, 2022, God called His soldier home.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

2 Esdras 7: 78

Now, concerning death, the teaching is : when the decisive decree has gone forth from the Most High that a man shall die ,as the spirit leaves the body to return again to him who gave it, first of all it adores the glory of The Most High.

My Journeys Has Just Begun

Don't think of me as gone away
My journeys has just begun
Life holds so many facets
This earth is but one
Just think of me as resting
From the sorrows and the tears In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years
Think of how I must be wishing that you could know today
How nothing but your sadness
Can really go away
And think of me as living
In the hearts of those I touched for nothing loved is ever lost.
As I know I was loved so much.
