General Price List: Effective March 12, 2026

Prices subject to change without notice

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

We would like to take this opportunity to offer our condolences to you and your family during this difficult time. We at Singleton's believe that you and your families needs are our first priority and take pride to ensure those needs are met. As a family owned and operated funeral home that has been active in the community since 1932, we believe in serving each family with integrity and respect. Our staff is comprised of professional licensed funeral directors to provide you the personal attention needed while making arrangements. We understand that losing a loved one, either suddenly or expectedly, is the most difficult ordeal we face. Here at Singleton's we believe that no two individuals are alike, therefore no two funeral services should be alike. That's why you can rely on us to provide direction and answers you need to help you in making your decisions. We would like to thank you for choosing Singleton Funeral & Cremation Services, PA, and allowing us the privilege to serve your family. It is our hope that you find comfort at our funeral home.

Sincerely,

Pam Houatter, Owner

 In most areas of the country, state or local law does not require that you buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a grave liner or a burial vault will satisfy these requirements.

 Our Funeral Home makes no representations or warranties regarding caskets or outer burial containers.
