A Good Man's Journey

A gentle soul, a heart so true,
A friend like you was rare and few.
In every smile, in every deed,
You planted kindness like a seed.

A steady hand through storm and strife,
You touched with love so full of life.
A good man's journey, strong and clear,
Leaves echoes that we hold so dear.

Though now you've gone beyond our sight,
Your memory shines, a guiding light.
Rest peacefully, dear friend, and know—
Your love will never cease to grow.

Acknowledgment

The family of Leon Crawford Jr. sincerely thanks everyone for the love and support shown during this difficult time. We are grateful for the prayers, calls, and concern throughout his illness and after his passing. Special thanks to the staff at Hospice of Wichita Falls for the compassionate care provided to Leon during his transition.

Leon Charles
Crawford Jr.

April 20, 1956 - August 21, 2026

A Glimpse into Leon's Life

Leon Charles Crawford Jr. was born on April 20, 1956, in Wichita Falls, Texas, to the late Leon Charles Crawford Sr. and Everline Anderson Crawford. He was the only son born to this union.

Leon was raised and baptized at Mount Pleasant Baptist Church by Pastor R.L. Castle Jr., where he faithfully attended until his passing. He served as a bus driver and sang joyfully in the church choir. He was also a member of the Quartet group, The Gospel Stars.

Leon graduated from Rider High School, Class of 1974. Known as the best car detail man in North Texas—a title he proudly claimed—his passion for his craft was unmatched.

A lover of good music and good times, Leon enjoyed spending time with his many friends and associates. He worked at Habitat for Humanity, All Hands Cultural Center, and Ainsworth & Young Funeral Home.

Leon was preceded in death by his parents, L.C. and Everline Crawford, Sr., his nephews, Darren Banks, Sr., Gregory Lovett, Jr. and many other cherished relatives and friends.

He leaves to cherish his memory his children, To'Meka Woods, Joseph Terron Bryant, and Jaquavious Edgemon; his four sisters, Barbara Crawford, Patricia Banks, Ruthie Crawford (his twin sister), and Rhonda Lovett; grandchildren Alizae' Janae, To'Mia Marie, Kashauana Ranae, Raymond Lamar Jr., Rashaud Lawarne (Twynz), Ra'Nia Lavon Woods, Kaedence Alize Bryant, Joseph Kyler Bryant, Bella Preecly Bryant, Cebastyan Ronald Bryant, Zakhari Edgemon, and Tylan Edgemon; great-granddaughter Saige Armani Tims; aunt Robbie Edwards; niece Monica Crawford; nephews, Donald Banks and Greg Marzett; and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.
