Though I'm not here to light your way,
My love remains, it's here to stay.
In every dawn, in every night,
I'm shining still, a gentle light.

When skies grow dark, and hearts feel cold,
Remember the warmth I used to hold.
Though you can't see me, I'm near, my dear —
A whispered hope, a shining cheer.

Keep shining bright, don't fade away,
Let love guide you through each day.
In your heart, I'll always appear,
A spark of light, forever near.

So when you wonder where I've gone,
Look to the stars, I'm shining on.
Keep shining, love, keep shining clear —
I'm with you still, though I'm not here.

Obituary

Dennis Dominique Eaden was born on August 10, 1988, in Wichita Falls, Texas, to Veronica Robinson and Dennis Eaden. He peacefully departed this life on June 30, 2026, in his hometown of Wichita Falls.

Known affectionately as Dominique or Dom, he grew up in Wichita Falls and graduated from Hirschi High School in 2007. He was most recently employed by Red Lobster.

Dominique had a deep passion for drawing, creating music, The Cowboy, and spending cherished moments with his children. Recently baptized at City of Hope Church, he embraced his faith wholeheartedly and often quoted his favorite Bible saying: "Keep it shining."

He was preceded in death by his father, Dennis Lamar Eaden; grandfather, Joe Dennis Jackson; and aunt, Patsy Coleman Eaden.

Dominique leaves behind a loving family who will forever hold his memory dear: his mother, Veronica Robinson; sisters, Danielle Eaden (Edward) and Desiree Eaden (Steven); his children, son Darion (DJ) Eaden and daughter Myka Eaden; grandparents Lillie Jackson, Peggy Wade, and Willie Robinson; along with a large extended family of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and his beloved fur baby, Puddin'.

Acknowledgment

The family of Dennis Dominique Eaden "Dom" extends heartfelt gratitude for every prayer, expression of sympathy, act of kindness, and gesture of support received during this time of bereavement. Your love and compassion are deeply appreciated and will always be remembered.
