

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much, Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.

Ophelia "Curly Faye" Williams

April 27, 1953 - December 19, 2025

The moment that you died, my heart was torn in two,
one side filled with heartache, the other lives with you.

I often lie awake at night when the world is fast asleep, walking slowly down memory lane with tears upon cheeks.

Remembering you is easy,
I do it every day,
But missing you as a heartache that never fades away.

I still hear you fussing at us, your voice so clear, so strong- love wrapped in discipline, guiding us all along.

Ophelia, you were a fighter through and through, Surviving breast cancer 46 years;
a living, breathing testimony of courage, faith, and perseverance through tears.

An Eastern Star, so full of grace, serving with an open heart, lifting others through your work and doing your part.

You poured into the community, helping children dream and grow, With the Boys Scouts and Girl Scouts, you helped their futures glow.

I hold you tightly within my heart, and there you will remain, until that glorious, promised day
When in Heaven we'll meet again.
