Tributes

Tevin,
How do I say goodbye? My heart aches. From the day you were born till the day you left we had a special bond. Even in disagreements we found a way to still respect each other's opinions and move on. We talked about everything with no judgement and I remained proud of you through everything you did or went through because you never gave up. I thank God for the Friday, Sunday and Monday nights before you left. You were so happy and we all laughed at Golden Corral on Friday. On Sunday you played at the birthday party with the boys and laughed so much. And we all had the best Monday night movie night with popcorn and soda. My last conversation with you was Tuesday night on the 10th at 7:36pm. You told me you would be at Mimi's till we got home but you decided to stay at her house for the night. By morning you would be gone. You were a great dad to Derell, Ezrhya, Elias and Devin and the love was unconditional. You were a great little brother and friend to your big brother Kerry and y'all were inseparable. Most of all you were a great son to me and I wouldn't trade you for anything. We talked about you keeping your relationship with God no matter what and I'm glad you did. You helped everyone and anyone. You always checked on everyone. I admired your concern for others. You were the most genuine and honest person I knew. My love for you will never die. Our favorite saying was "What don't break you or kill you makes you strong". My heart is broken. I am holding on to the hope that I will one day see you again...Until then, As long as I'm living I will love you always and I will love you forever.

-Mama

Dad, (Tev)
I love you and I will miss you.
-Derell

Tevin,
I already miss you and I will always miss you. I love you Tevin.
-Elias

Tevin,
I want to see you again. I miss you and love you.
-Devin

Reflections of Tevin

Tevin Marquise Thomas was born on June 5, 1991, in Wichita Falls, TX to Kerry Thomas Sr. and Lacresa Thomas. He attended Kate Burgess Elementary School, Kirby Junior High School and graduated from Hirschi High School in 2009. After graduating, he attended Truck Driving School in Mesquite, Texas.

He traveled to Austin, Texas to spend time with his favorite cousin, Marquise Goodwin, where he attended Austin Community College. While in Austin, he trained with his cousin to prepare for an NFL walk-on.

Tevin enjoyed playing basketball and football, cooking (all over Texas), working out, singing, and spending time with his family. We all know he loved dressing up and wearing cowboy boots! But his favorite pastime of all was spending time with his children.

He referred to his older brother Kerry Jr. as “the person he admired the most” and “The walking Bible”, because he knew the scriptures off the top of his head.

He had a special bond with his father; Kerry Sr and they hung out together quite often. He always made sure to spend quality time with his “Mama Best Friend”. Tevin took a picture of some food that his mom had made him and said, “dang, look at what I am eating and hanging out with my mom, man I love this woman”. He always told his mom that he was going to stay with her forever, and he did.

He shares 4 sons with Danielle Arias. His oldest son Derell, referred to each other as “Tev” and “DJ the man”. He referred to his middle son Elias, as “Eli the Guy”. His youngest son Devin, he referred to him as “Devin the Dude”. He loved playing video games, taking them to the park and helping them with their homework.

Tevin was a member of an on-line Bible Study Group where he recruited several souls to Christ. He was always helping someone and would give you his last. If he had it, you had it.

He was preceded in death by his son Ezrhya Thomas, his grandfather – Ira Joe Goodwin, and his aunt, Alicia Thomas.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his mother, Lacresa Starks (Shannon); his father – Kerry Thomas Sr; brothers – Kerry Thomas Jr. (Treauna) and Treyvon Cameron; a Step-sister – Dayanna Qwuarels. Children – Derell Thomas, Elias Thomas and Devin Thomas. Grandparents – Barbara and Billy Thomas; Billie Wilson. A beautiful niece, Empress Thomas. Sister-in-law – Sparkle Thomas, God sister – Khenya Rose; Godson, Elijah Berry; best friends – Rashad Reece, Donovan Barry and Eddie Kilgore; a special friend – Francisca Garza and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
