The Broken Chain

We knew little that morning that
God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems to be the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Dennis Lamar Eaden

[illegible]

He leaves to mourn his mother, Lillie Jackson; his brother, Charles Eaden; Rickey Jackson and Torry Anderson; and his sisters, Tina Tucker, Sharon Jackson, and Charlotte Jackson. He also leaves his longtime friend Veronica Robinson, with whom he shared three children—Dominique, Danielle, and Desiree—as well as eleven grandchildren. Also host of relatives and friends survive him. Whether you knew him as Dinky or Dennis, his presence will truly be missed.
