Wilbert Lined Burial Vaults

*For peace of mind—
select a Wilbert brand lined burial vault.*

Built Strong
Water Resistant

“Why do I have to have one?”

- Over the years, I’m sure you have seen cemeteries that have older sections with broken or toppled monuments.
- To keep the cemetery looking nice, they now require a graveliner or burial vault for the casket to be placed in.
- Both the graveliner and burial vault will support the earth’s weight and the heavy cemetery equipment.
- However, the graveliner does not offer protection to the casket from water, insects or any other natural elements.
- A Wilbert brand burial vault is designed and warranted to maintain the integrity of the casket, providing you peace of mind that the casket will not be compromised.

“But, will anyone even see it?”

- A backhoe will open the grave as seen in the illustration and we will arrange for a graveside service with a tent and chairs set up for your family and friends.
- The burial vault will be seen by your family and friends while at the graveside. This will allow you to view your loved one's name, dates, pictures and/or any other special personalization that you may have selected for the burial vault.
- The burial vault will be seen again by others when the graves on either side are opened and closed over the years.

These prices are effective as of November 1, 2025 but are subject to change without notice. In most areas of the country, state or local law does not require that you buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a grave liner or a burial vault will satisfy these requirements.

Our funeral home makes no representation or warranties about the protective value of certain caskets or outer burial containers other than those made by the manufacturer. The only warranties expressed or implied, granted in connection with goods sold with this funeral service are the written warranties, if any, extended by the manufacturer thereof.
