

Frank R. Bell Funeral Home, Inc.

As our nation is struggling with Coronavirus (COVID-19) during this unprecedented time, we wanted to reassure you that the health and safety of our employees their families, and your family is our first priority.

At Frank R. Bell Funeral Home, we will continue to serve you during this difficult time. To do so safely we are adhering to and have reinforced the guidelines issued by Governor Cuomo from the State of New York.

We ask that all families call for appointment at (718) 399-2500. To serve you further and keep families safe we are also providing arrangements remotely.

Please contact us for further information.

On behalf of Frank R. Bell Funeral Home, we are praying for US all and believe God to bring US all through these crises.

We ask that you use wisdom and know we are all in this together.