

Please consider UFDA and NFDA as an extension of your staff. If you need support or have questions, please reach out to us at (UFDA) 801-263-3286 or (NFDA) 800-228-6332. We continue to use our national and local influence to proactively protect and fight for the rights of licensed funeral directors and funeral homes and to preserve the integrity of the profession. Your 2023 membership dues continue to help us fulfill our commitment to anticipate your needs and to provide essential tools and resources to help you successfully serve families and manage your business. Check out the NFDA member portal for the latest perks.

Benefits include:

- discounts on continuing education opportunities at our 2023 Annual Convention (April 26-27, 2023 in Lehi) and Midwinter Meetings (January 12-14, 2023 in St. George), & multiple NFDA certification and training programs including its International Convention and Expo;
- monthly UFDA E-newsletter and website with FREE resources, free classifieds and employment listings;
- Emerging Leader Program for newly licensed Utah funeral directors and leadership opportunities available;
- local and national — scholarships, business and professional development opportunities;
- access to 300+ FREE legal documents, guidance and support from NFDA's legal attorney.
- national and local legislative lobbying and support;
- NFDA health insurance options and discount program;
- one free* annual registration to UFDA's and NFDA's Annual Convention and NFDA Leadership Conference;
- access to recordings of previous years' continuing education to make up missing credits for a nominal fee;
- annual district meetings in the Fall with FREE continuing education credit; and
- OSHA, FTC compliance, cremation, arrangement, and public relations support, education, consultation and much more.

Your firm's membership gives ALL of these benefits to each funeral director at your firm.

More NFDA benefits:

- full-time representation in Washington D.C.
- Youth and Funerals e-book and video
- Political Action Committee (PAC)
- Code of Professional Conduct
- current legislative/regulatory issues & protections
- Professional Women's Conference
- music license program and music webcasting license
- news releases and media relations
- community relations and other marketing resources & materials
- telephone interpreter and document translation services
- foreign currency and international payment program
- resource store, supplier directory, and endorsed providers
- discount advantage and work/life resource programs
- Have the Talk of a Lifetime campaign materials
- Certified Crematory Operator (CCO) certification
- Certified Preplanning Consultant (CPC) certification
- many other conferences, benefits and training opportunities
- family satisfaction survey
- legislative action
- disaster planning
- GPL review service
- legal consultation
- home study & online learning
- webinars and teleconferences
- recognition programs
- HR hotline
- The Bulletin (E-newsletter)
- The Director Magazine
- Memorial Business Journal
- Meet the Mentors
- Arranger Training
- OSHA resources
- sample legal forms

Each year UFDA gives away a free Annual Convention registration to each Emerging Leader recipient, and NFDA gives each state association a free registration to give away for its Annual Convention and Leadership Conference. Contact UFDA for details.*