

Bereavement Support Group

A Group for Individuals Grieving Due to a Significant Loss

Are you finding it difficult coping with a major loss such as a job, a spouse, parent, sibling, or a friend? Living with a loss or encountering a personal illness can be one of the most difficult challenges you'll ever face. Fortunately, there are steps you can take to go through the grieving process.

We are people who care and understand what you are experiencing. We offer comfort and encouragement during this difficult time. An opportunity to meet and share your experiences with others and perhaps develop new friendships. Let our trained group leaders help you grow through your grief and loss.
