The goods and services shown are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only those items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Prior to drafting any contract for goods or services, the responsible party or the decedent's survivor who is handling the funeral arrangements is entitled to receive a copy of any preneed agreement in the possession of the funeral establishment that has been signed and paid for, in full or in part, by or on behalf of the decedent.

Basic Services of Funeral Director and Staff and Overhead$ 2,395.00

This fee includes the following:

The arrangement conference with family and clergy, direction of visitation, reception, and funeral preparation.

Securing, preparing and filing of the necessary permits, notices, authorizations and consents.

Coordinating arrangements with cemetery, crematory and others involved in the final disposition.

Overhead expenses such as insurance, maintenance, and utility expenses, secretarial and administrative cost, taxes, licenses, equipment and inventory expenses.

This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for a direct cremation, immediate burial and forwarding or receiving remains.)

Preparation of the Body

Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial.

Allen Brothers Mortuary, Inc. is a full-service mortuary, family owned and operated since 1964.

We can take care of all the details of your service for you. Prior to contacting your church, minister or musicians please consult with your Funeral Director/Arrangement Counselor at either the Vista or San Marcos Chapel. It is our commitment to you that we will take as much of the burden off your shoulders as possible.

We will help coordinate a service time which is convenient for you, traveling family members, your church and clergy, and the cemetery. Personalization and specific details such as music, flowers, memorial folders, guestbook, pallbearers, and automobiles can all be handled by our mortuary staff. We will assist you with insurance and Veterans claim forms, even after your services, as part of our services to our families. We are here to assist you with all your needs at this difficult time.

Whatever choices you make, it will be our privilege to carry them out.

BURIAL SERVICES can range from direct burial with no service or viewing to a traditional funeral with viewing, service, and graveside committal, with military honors when applicable.

CREMATION SERVICES can range from direct cremation, direct cremation with family-only final farewell, a memorial service, a visitation only, or a traditional service, with the final disposition being cremation.

TRANSPORTATION INTO SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA - If your loved one passes away out of the area and wished to return to San Diego County for burial, we can help make all the arrangements.

TRANSPORTATION OUT OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA - If your loved one passes away in San Diego County and wished to be sent outside of Southern California for burial, we can make all the arrangements.

ON-SITE RECEPTIONS ROOMS offer a convenient and comfortable setting for families to share memories with family and friends.

Allen Brothers Mortuary offers a complimentary on-line Eternal Memorial Tribute for your loved one. The Eternal Tribute goes beyond the obituary that may be printed in a newspaper, allowing families to come together across the miles, to relive special moments, and to celebrate the unique legacy of your loved one.

Every service should be as unique as the life being celebrated. Whether you choose burial or cremation, you can choose to hold many different types of services - a visitation, funeral service, witness cremation, graveside service, or a memorial service. Any of these can be personalized in a number of ways to honor your loved one.

Personalization of the funeral can be as simple or as elaborate as you choose. Allen Brothers' staff can provide a number of suggested options; let us know if there are other choices you would like.

Whatever your preferences or ideas may be, Allen Brothers will work to help you create a memorable and meaningful tribute to your loved one.
