

Are You Wondering...

Will it be ok?
Will they be ok?

There's an old saying, "From the day that you're born, till you ride in a hearse..." We may not all take that final ride "in a hearse" but we will all leave our loved ones some day. Naturally we want to make it easier in every way we can for our families. The emotional stress of arranging a funeral within days of losing a loved one can be overwhelming.

Making your plans in advance is step one to reducing their stress; step two is sharing your wishes with your family. Preplanning allows your loved ones to reflect upon the memories of your life rather than the details of your death.

Your questions on preplanning will be answered at our no obligation, one-hour workshop
(includes lunch in our on-site reception room)
