Steps to Take at The Time of Death

Death in An Institution: When death occurs in a hospital or nursing home, the medical staff will take all the necessary legal steps. You just need to notify them that Vilonia Funeral Home is the funeral home that will be serving your family. You will sign any necessary release forms, then after we are notified, we will respond immediately to bring your loved one into our care.

Death at Home: If death has occurred at home under hospice care, then you should immediately contact the hospice nurse and notify them that Vilonia Funeral Home is the funeral home that will be serving your family. They will take care of all necessary legal requirements and contact us. When they notify us, we will immediately respond to bring your loved one into our care. If death occurred unexpectedly, and hospice is not involved, immediately call 911. The coroner will be notified and will then determine the appropriate steps to be taken. Tell the coroner, you want Vilonia Funeral Home to assist your family during this difficult time.

Death Away from Home: If death occurs away from home, you should first call Vilonia Funeral Home. We can be reached 24 hours a day. We are part of several national associations, and networks that can often save families money by having our firm handle the arrangements.

The Funeral Arrangement Conference

After we have been notified of the death, we will call to schedule a mutually convenient time to begin discussing and planning funeral arrangements. Although most of our funeral conferences are made at the funeral home, during business hours, we are available to come to your residence or meet in the evenings, or weekends. At least one of our directors are on duty 24 hours a day, every day of the year. If death occurs during the night, we will usually call you after 9:00 AM the next day to schedule our conference.

When you meet with our funeral director, you will want to bring the following items with you:

1. Clothing – All normal clothing including undergarments. We prefer an outfit that is closed at the neckline and with long sleeves. Shoes are optional.
2. A recent photograph for obituary and preparation purposes. A group picture can be used, but the larger and clearer the face, the better it will reproduce.
3. Biographical Information Needed for the obituary (A form is attached to this booklet)
4. Vital statistic information needed for our death certificates and legal permits. (A form is attached to this booklet.)
5. Military discharge and separation records (form DD-214) if applicable.
6. Cemetery Information, if applicable.
7. If you would like the proceeds deducted from a life insurance policy, bring the policy with you and we can file the claim for you.
