Today, each person and family have different needs and thoughts on funeral service. Whether you choose a direct cremation, full traditional service, memorial service or celebration of life we can help you.

The Paul F. Kent Funeral Home Ltd. is a family owned and operated business and has been serving the community for over ninety years. I bring over 50 years of funeral experience to our business, and we have proudly owned this business since 1978.

As some of you know our family has suffered many losses. We lost our son, and both of us lost parents at a young age. We have been on the other side of the desk and understand the journey.

We always start by listening and explaining your options. Our setting is warm and homelike. We are caring, helpful and unobtrusive. If you have any questions, please call us.
We are always available.

Funeral Service Options

Traditional Funeral Service (Package D & C)

A visiting time and service following a death. This enables the family, friends and community to share the sense of loss. The casket is present at the visitation and funeral service, which is held at the funeral home or church. Burial or cremation follows the service. Preparations are recommended if the casket is to be open. The traditional service can take place over one day or two.

Minimal Funeral Services (Package B)

A minimal funeral service may consist of a visitation and/or and funeral service at the funeral home or church for 3 hours. Embalming or minimal preparation are optional and the casket may be present depending on your choice. Burial or cremation will follow the service.

Memorial Service (Package B-1)

A memorial service is held after the cremation or burial has taken place. The cremation urn may or may not be present. A memorial service may take place at the funeral home or church soon after the death or at a more convenient time in the future. A family may choose to do the service themselves or may choose a minister.

Direct Cremation or Burial (Package A)

If one wishes not to have a funeral service there is the option of a Direct Cremation or Burial. This service is provided by our funeral home and involves the followings:

- The initial transfer of the deceased from the place of death (within 60 km of the funeral home) to the funeral home
- Completing final arrangements and all necessary documentation to proceed with cremation or burial
- Transfer of the deceased from the funeral home to crematorium or cemetery (within 60 km of our funeral home)

Personalizing the Service

For a traditional funeral, minimal service, or memorial service a family may wish to bring photo albums and pictures to the funeral home. We provide a photo boards, which may be used to display your photos. Video memorial tributes can be made to play on our website or during your visitation and service. A family may wish to bring their own selection of music for the visitation or service or may choose the traditional music we offer.

Disbursements

Disbursements are items arranged for and possibly paid for on your behalf by the funeral home. We then add these items on you invoice/contract. The following are some items that are often identified as disbursements.

Bereavement Authority of Ontario (BAO) Consumer Protection Fee - Charged by the BAO to cover its regulatory and oversight functions within the bereavement sector in Ontario. This fee helps the BAO fulfill its responsibilities within the funeral, burial, and cremation industry.

Coroner's fee – this is a fee charged by the coroner for issuing a certificate that allows cremation to take place. The fee is set by the Chief Coroner for Ontario.

Clergy honorarium – this is an amount paid to the clergy for their services. In some cases, the amount is set by the clergy, in others it is an amount to be determined by you.

Newspaper or radio notices – these are charges for death notices placed in newspapers or radio or other media outlets.

Municipal death registration fee – this is a fee charged by the local municipality to register the death. The fee is set by the municipality and may vary.

Crematorium Charges – This fee is charged by the crematorium for cremation services.

Burial Permit Fee – A licencing fee charged through the crematorium

Organist Fee – This is an amount paid the organist at a facility other than the funeral home. In some cases the amount is set.

Caretaker - This is an amount paid the caretaker at a facility other than the funeral home. In some cases the amount is set.
