This is a process using 95% water and 5% alkaline to rapidly break down the remains in a gentle eco-friendly alternative to traditional cremation. At Kruger Funeral Home we understand that your fur children deserve all of the same services as you. Therefore, we have partnered with Trusted Journey based out of Champaign, Illinois so that we can care for them as well. We are proud to offer pet cremation services and merchandise. Cost depends upon weight of the animal. We charge no fees for local pickup of your deceased pet from any veterinarian or residence, as long as the pet is less than fifty pounds. We also give each family an ink paw print or nose print (as we are able) on standard white paper free of charge. Paperwork must be completed and services paid for prior to the cremation, and it is typically about a week before your furry friend is ready to return home to you.
