- Urn and casket selection may vary as available from suppliers.
- Some single and companion urns may not hold full amount of cremated remains due to size and design.
- If the urn is to be placed in a Niche Wall or Urn Plot, it is the purchaser's responsibility to ensure that the urn meets the required dimensions of the niche wall compartment or allotted plot space. Consideration of the urn dimensions should also be given by the purchaser if a second urn may be added at a later date. The purchaser is also responsible to verify with the cemetery that the material and design of the urn meets the requirements as set out by cemetery by-laws. Responsibility to confirm all measurements is that of the purchaser. The funeral home is not liable for any measurement errors or missed considerations.
- Under the terms of our contract, the urn sale is considered "delivered" and the sale final, once the cremated remains have been placed into the urn; or once possession of the urn is transferred to the purchaser where the funeral home is not placing the cremated remains into the urn.
- Under the terms of our contract, any product personalization that is permanently etched or cannot be removed without additional cost to the funeral home is considered as being "delivered". Once the physical process of personalizing has begun, the sale is considered final. Where possible, any additional fee required to restore the product to its original, non-personalized condition, or to cover any cancellation fees by the supplier, will be offered to the purchaser at cost. The purchaser will have the option of accepting the product as personalized at the contracted price, or accepting the cost of refurbishing/cancellation.
- There are many different styles, designs and materials of urns available. It is only possible for us to carry a small representation of the many options available. Please feel free to speak with one of our directors for additional selections as we have access to hundreds of styles and designs.

SECTION 11: CASH DISBURSEMENTS

- Cash disbursements are fees that are charged by companies, organizations or individuals that are not affiliated with the funeral home.
- Any items included as Cash Disbursement are invoiced at cost only and are the responsibility of the purchaser.
- Some disbursements are estimated and will be charged at cost in the final invoice once the actual amount is confirmed.
- Cash Disbursements applied to the funeral home invoice, if any, is at the discretion of the funeral home.
- Estimates for newspaper notices are for one day only and do not include a photo unless specified otherwise. Most newspapers charge per line or per word and will vary depending on length of notice and according to the pricing set by individual media companies.

Payment for Funerals

- Unless otherwise specified
 - Payment is due within 30 days of contract date.
 - Payments are accepted in the form of cash, debit, cheque, bank draft, Visa, MasterCard or money order.
- Interest is calculated on past due accounts at a rate of 2% per month or 24% per annum, simple interest.
- Dishonoured payments are subject to a fee of $25 per transaction
- Any fees incurred by the funeral home to collect on past due accounts will be the responsibility of the purchaser and included in the recovery amount.
- Services provided at time of death are provided under the Terms and Conditions of our At-Need Contract

About our Pre- Arrangement Program

- We offer complimentary pre-need planning which allows you to:
 - Express your wishes
 - Create a file which is held by the funeral home
 - Receive copies of your file for yourself and to be given to your next-of-kin and/or executor
 - Obtain an estimate to ensure that your insurance and investments are sufficient to cover final expenses
 - Compare between funeral service providers to ensure that what you are being offered is fair and reasonably priced
- We offer a variety of options for pre-need funding including:
 - Insurance/Annuity policies
 - Trust investments
 - Single-pay and time-pay options
- Interest earned on invested funds is used to offset the cost of inflation.
- Many of our payment options are guaranteed - If prices at the time of death exceed the amount of money held in trust, the funeral home will absorb the difference - If funds exceed the funeral cost, the unused funds are returned to the estate.
- All investments are tax-free if used for funeral arrangements - only interest refunded is taxable.
- Please see our Pre-Need Funeral Contract and Investment/Insurance/Annuity Applications for all Terms and Conditions related to Pre-funding your funeral pre-arrangement.
