~CASH ADVANCES~

Cash Advances are outside charges for services and expenses that are incurred in conducting the desired arrangements. These can consist of, but are not limited to; offering for clergy, organist, other musicians, soloist, church sexton, florists, hired pall bearers, cemetery grave opening charges, grass and device for grave set up, cemetery tent, crematory, State Medical Examiner's fee, certified copied of the death certificate, newspaper charges, consultant fees, disinterment permit and related fees, cemetery or vault company overtime charges, and any other outside charges that are incurred in conducting the arrangements. Death certificates in the state of Connecticut are currently $20.00 a copy. A Burial permit is currently $5.00 and Cremation permits total $10.00. These fees will be added into the funeral service contract, as well as, a minimum $6.95 service fee should we need to mail out certified copies to the next of kin. As a Convenience to families and because many of the outside vendors do not accept personal checks, the Funeral Home will pay these advances and list the charges on the funeral bill under Cash Advances.
