Death Certificate Information:

The funeral home will be responsible for filing the necessary papers and will initially obtain for the client the number of death certificates that they desire with a pre-payment of the actual cost of the death certificates only. The prices are set by the local and state governments and the funeral home does not charge for the initial obtaining of the death certificates in advance. After the information has been filed you may obtain copies on your own by presenting the death certificate number to the local jurisdiction where death certificates were filed. All insurance companies require a certified death certificate. Other organizations may or may not accept uncertified copies. All clients are advised to use their own personal discretion when purchasing death certificates.
