DISBURSEMENTS
Disbursements are items arranged for and possibly paid for on your behalf by the funeral home. You are expected to pay for these items at the time the contract is entered into. The following are examples that are often identified as disbursements. Coroner’s certificate: a fee of $75.00 by the coroner for issuing a certificate that allows the cremation to take place. Clergy honorarium: This amount is paid to the Clergy for their services. The amount is set by the Clergy. Newspaper notice: “AT COST” charge for death notices which are placed in newspapers and Municipality death registration fee, charged by the local municipality to register the death. The fee is set by the municipality and may vary. Catering Services are not offered through Stinson Funeral Home Ltd. Food may be brought in and treated as a disbursement.

FUNDING
When pre-paying, the services and supplies are paid for today and the money will be used to pay for the services and supplies when are delivered at the time of death.
TRUST: The money may be paid directly to the funeral home, and it will be placed in trust where it shall accrue interest until the contract is fulfilled (when the services and supplies are delivered) or the contract is cancelled.
NOTE: Cancellation may result in 10% to a maximum of $350.00
