

I Am Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free;
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, to laugh,
to love, to work, or play.

Tasks undone must stay that way.
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, God set me free.

- Love Always,
Hugh

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A friendly smile,
A casual touch,
These are the things
that mean so much.
To know you are with us
in our time of sorrow,
Sharing our prayers,
Today and tomorrow.
God gives us comfort
in the form of good friends,
May His peace be with you,
His love never ends.

His Story

A LIFE WELL LIVED

Hugh B. Prass was born in Georgetown, Guyana to the late Pearl Kitt and Sinclear Prass, he was the youngest of 14 children. Hugh attended Central High School in Guyana, where he always exceeded in his studies. His nicknames were (Bright Man or Smart Man). Hugh was gainfully employed at GPC in Guyana for 2 years, also as a Public Health Officer for the Mayor and City Council of Guyana for 17 years.

Hugh relocated to the United States in 2000 and gained employment with C. Davis as an electrician for 12 years. After his health started to fail, he began to spend his time volunteering at North Side Church of God as a Treasure and in the Pantry.

Hugh was a man full of life, he was very loving and kindhearted, joyful, and funny. Hugh Prass was a friend to many. He loved to make jokes and make people laugh. He was a family man, the best time for him was celebrating at family gatherings. His siblings meant the world to him as his immediate family.

On December 4, 2016, Hugh gave his life to the Lord, it was a joyful day in his life. Ever since that day, he has spent his time and energy giving back to the Lord in every way he could.

Hugh lived a full meaningful life with his family and shared lots of cheerful and joyful memories to remember.

He leaves to cherish his memories his loving wife of 34 years Joan Prass, Children: Tilletha, Mikel, Tamesha and Brandon Prass. Adopted Children Chrystal, Joshua and Dionne Clarke who preceded him in death.
