

IN GOD'S HANDS

Everything is so pretty here,
so fresh, so new.
I wish that you could close your eyes
so you could see it too.

Please try not to be sad for me.
Try to understand.
God is taking care of me...
I'm in the shelter of His hands.

Here there is no sadness,
and no sorrow, and no pain.
Here there is no crying,
and I'll never hurt again.

Here it is so peaceful,
when all the angels sing.
I really have to go for now...
I've just got to try my wings.

The Journey of EIRKUS BAILES, JR.

Eirkus Bailes Jr was born on April 28, 1962 to the late Eirkus Bailes Sr. and Iduma Miller Bailes in Miami Beach, Florida. Eirkus Jr. grew up primarily in Miami, Florida, and spent many summers and holidays in Phenix City, Alabama.

Eirkus attended the Marian Center School in Miami, Florida and participated in the workshop there through early adulthood. He also was a reliable assistant to his parents in their real estate business helping with many important tasks.

Eirkus Jr. enjoyed attending church services with his family at New Covenant Presbyterian Church in Miami, Florida, and Nichols Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Phenix City, Alabama.

Upon the death of his parents, Eirkus adopted another home in Maryland and enjoyed his travels there. Eirkus was an invaluable asset to his sister in her real estate business as well.

Eirkus departed this life on November 18, 2019 in Miami, Florida. He leaves to mourn and to treasure precious memories, his sister, Zandra Y. Bailes, nephews Adedeji Bailes Ogunfolu and Adekunle Bailes Ogunfolu (Alexandrea), and numerous caring and considerate relatives and friends.
