

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.

But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life, I'd always thought I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, and so much yet to do,
It seems almost impossible that I was leaving you.

I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.
But when I walked through "Heaven's Gates" I felt so much at home,
When God looked down and smiled at me
from His "Great Golden Throne"

He said, This is eternity and all I've promised you,
Today your life on earth is past but here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrows, but today will always last,
And since each day is the same, there's no longing for the past.

But you have been so faithful, so trusting and so true,
Though there were times you did some things you knew you shouldn't do.
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

Life REFLECTIONS

Charles Anthony Vance, Jr. was born on April 2, 1994 in Miami, Florida and the only child of Charles Anthony Vance, Sr. and Keisha Lashawn McCray Vance. Charles was educated in the Miami-Dade County School system and graduated from Miami Northwestern Senior High School. After graduation he took some courses at Florida Memorial College.

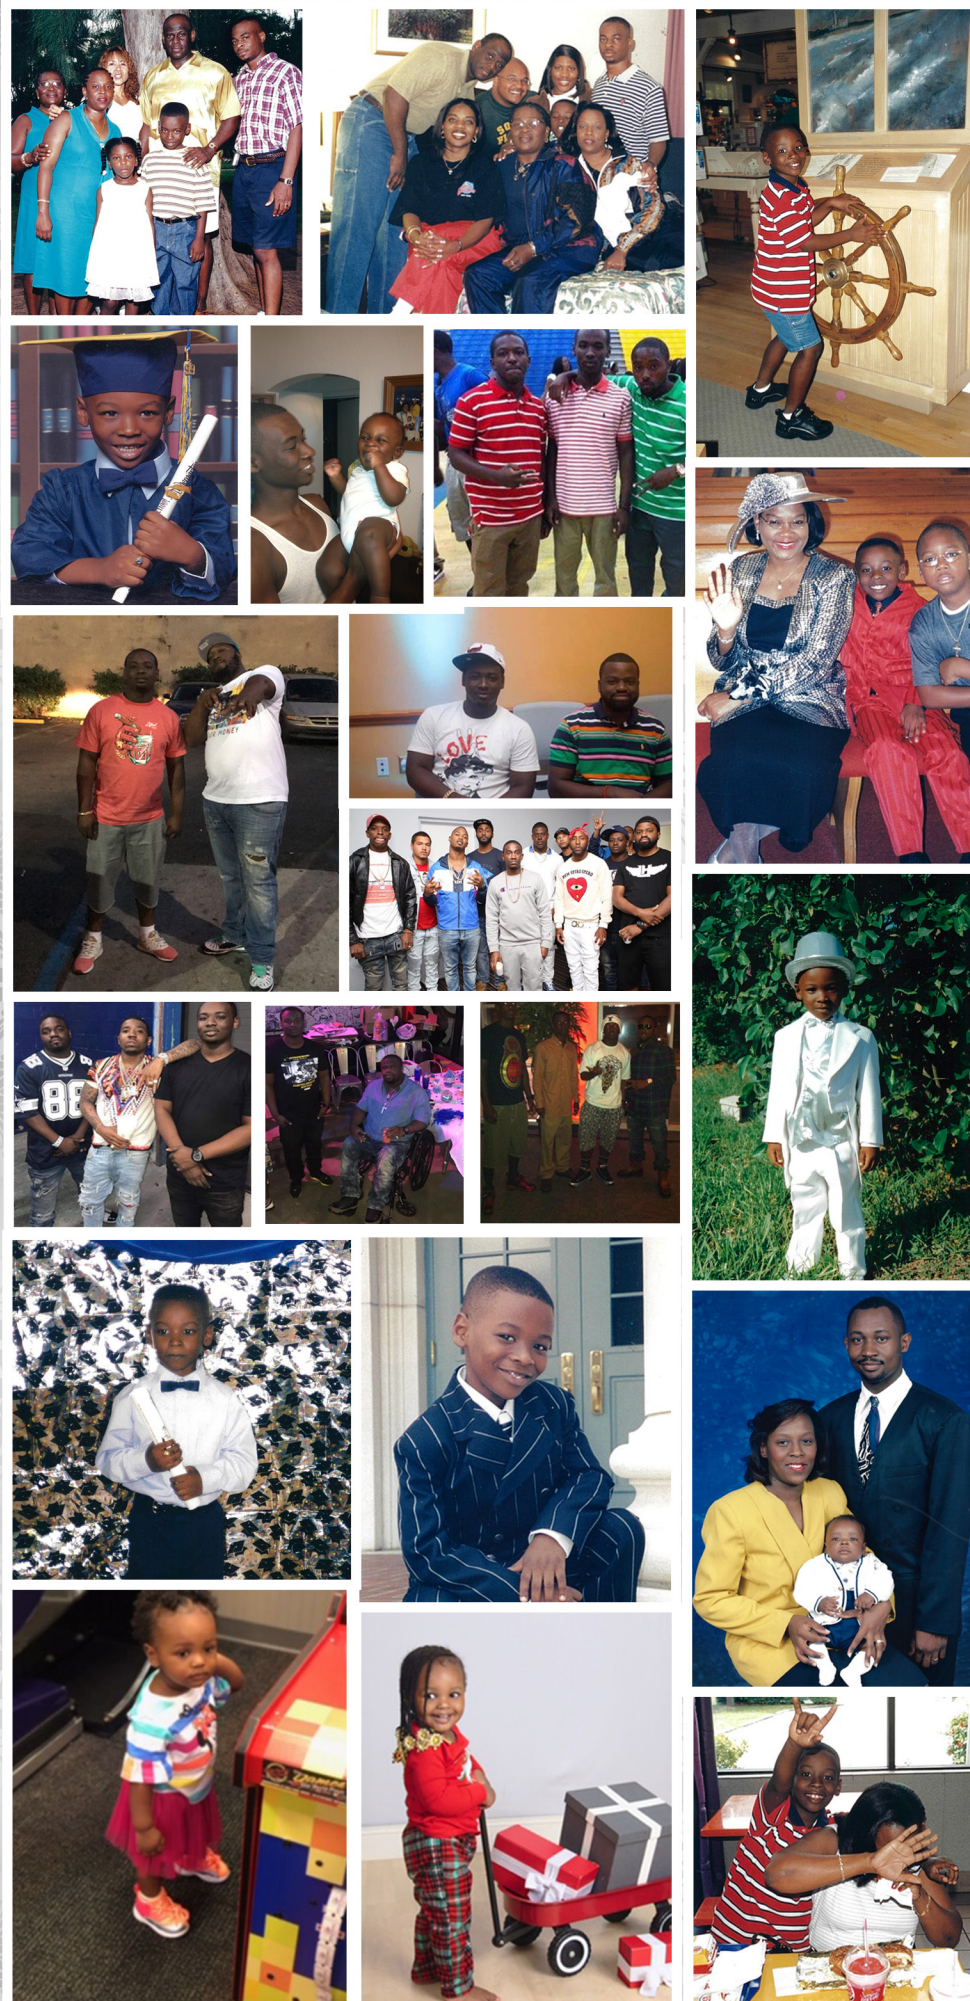

Employed in his early stage of life, Charles had many jobs until he was blessed with becoming a Mail Handler with the United States Postal Services. After employment with the Postal Service Charles made it his priority to remain there as a career for life working with his new found family faithfully, and he was a hard worker until his death.

Charles affectionately known as C.J. to his family was loved by so many and he was a very humble young man. Whenever you would meet him, he always had a smile that could brighten up your day. He was kind, loving and always a peacemaker.

Charles joined the 93rd Street Community Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Carl Johnson and enjoyed knowing and showing what Proverbs 18:24 says, a man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother. Our beloved C.J. was such a person.

On February 2, 2020 the Lord called home from labor to reward our BELOVED "C.J. – Charles Anthony Vance, Jr.

He leaves to cherish his loving and precious memories one son, Ace Lamar Vance and one daughter, Aliyah LaShawn Vance, a loving and devoted mother & father, Charles Anthony Vance, Sr. and Keisha LaShawn Vance, Grandmothers, Mary McCray of Miami and Charles Etta Vance of West Point, Mississippi, four Uncles, Deacon Henry Shubrick (Ekeisha) of Miami, Johnny McCray(Ofelia) of Tampa, Florida, Trinty Pulliam (Consuelo) of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Romie Marble (Da'niel) of Prairie, Mississippi, two aunts, Hattie M. Coleman (Freddie) of West Point, Mississippi and Donnie Wells of Verona, Mississippi and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and sorrowing friends.
