MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little, but not for long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go!
For this journey we all take,
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go.*

EXPRESSIONS OF GRATITUDE

The Family of the Late Rodney Allen Pollock are eternally grateful for the overwhelming love of family, friends and well wishers. Your prayers and support are greatly appreciated during our time of bereavement. We weep but not as those who have no hope, for our hope comes from the faith we have in God to strengthen us during this most difficult time.

His Life Story

Rodney Allen Pollock was born to the late John A. Pollock Sr. and Carol Harvard Lamar on November 18, 1966 in Miami Florida. Rodney was lovingly raised by Mother Carol and Stepfather Robert “Bobby” Washington Sr. along with his Maternal Grandparents Georgia and Jimmy Harvard Sr. who both preceded him in death. Younger Brother Robert “Boogie” Washington Jr. also preceded him in death. Rodney grew up surrounded by love. As a result, he extended that same love to everyone he met.

Rodney accepted Jesus Christ as the Lord and Savior of his life. He learned the purpose of ministry and embraced lasting relationships with other believers. He had a heart that embraced all mankind.

He received his education in the Miami Dade County Public School system where he later graduated from Miami Carol City Sr. High in 1984. Throughout his journey he was employed with the United States Postal Service. Rodney married the apple of his eye Debra Ervin. Although no children were born to this union Rodney was a Father figure, confidant and friend to his nieces and nephews and their friends keeping it 100 with them. Rodney was known for his curiosity, sarcastic comments, laughter, singing and let’s not forget his dancing during family gatherings.

Rodney was given an assignment by God. Upon the completion of his assignment God said, “It is finished”. He leaves to cherish his memories: A loving and devoted Mother: Carol Lamar (Johnas); Paternal Grandmother: Jessie Pollock; Brother: John “Butchie” Pollock Jr. (Jeanette); Sisters: Adrienne Pollock and Loleatha “Kitty” White (Jeffery); Nephews: Kennard Pollock, Kendrick Pollock, Kerrick Pollock and Zackery White; Nieces: Keandra Pollock, Keyshayla Pollock and Tiffany Coats(Chad); Uncles: Robert Harvard, Jimmy Harvard Jr. (Valencia), Ulysses “Buck” Harvard (Fridlande), Henry Pollock, Eugene Williams and Leo Edwards; Aunts: Alene Mills, Annette Boks(James) and Selena Lee; Godmother: Mrs. Williams; Special Friend: Delrio Williams and a Host of Cousins, Sorrowing Friends and Classmates.
