

To My Sister

When I was born
I broke the mold
As a sister I had a special soul
I admit sometimes I lost control
Glory Glory so I was told
But in the End
When my body was cold
I still have much love for those untold.

Love,
Cheryl

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.

For this journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When we are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go.

Life Story

On September 22, 1955, God blessed the union of Lemon and Madie Lane with a beautiful baby girl by the name of Denise Darcell Lane. She was known to have a heart that was warm and generous.

Denise was educated in the Miami-Dade County Public Schools System. Denise graduated from Miami Jackson Senior High School in 1974. She was a "Generals Cheerleader". Denise furthered her education by receiving a degree from Miami Dade Community College Downtown campus with an Associates of Arts Degree and she continued her passion for cheerleading where she was the Captain of the Squad. Denise also obtained a Bachelor of Science in Social Work and Hospitality from Florida International University.

Denise was employed at Jackson Memorial Hospital where she retired after many years of service in 1995. Denise then relocated to Dublin, Georgia until she transitioned from this life.

Denise knew that her relationship with God was also important. She served faithfully in various auxiliaries at New Providence Church, Mount Calvary and then at Miracle Valley Praise and Worship Center. She was a lifelong faithful child of God.

Denise loved her family dearly and made them one of her top priorities. She will truly be missed.

Denise leaves to cherish her memories: her one and only son, Senorris Darcell Bruce Miller; three sisters, Coradine, Cheryl and Deborah Lane; two brothers, Lemon Lane, Jr. Dwight Lane; her parents (Lemon & Madie); two brothers, Willie & Undrea Lane, all of which preceded her in death; four grandchildren, Jaden, Jeriel, Javeon and Jahmir Bruce Miller and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
