In keeping with his desire to be of service, he entered the United States Army on March 25, 1944, receiving an Honorable Discharge in 1946. While in the Army, Jasper traveled to many parts of the world including China, Burma and India during WWII.

In 1948, he married the love of his life, Gladys Tolbert, and remained married for 53 years until her death in 2001. Six children were born to this union. For several years, the couple resided in Harrisburg, PA, before returning to Miami, Florida in 1968. Jasper worked in the Construction industry as a Master Mason until his retirement. He is a member of the Masons and the Shriners.

Jasper was a member of Mount Sinai Missionary Baptist Church for more than 30 years. Mount Sinai held a special place in his heart. He served on the Board of Trustees, Brotherhood Ministry and was a regular attendee in Sunday School.

Jasper was preceded in death by his parents, Jasper and Annie Gore, his wife, Gladys Gore; his son, Anthony Gore Sr.; daughter Phyllis Gore Williams and grandchildren, Torrence Williams, Tamika Williams and Matthew Gore, Jr.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call, I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much, Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.*
