THE DAY GOD TOOK YOU HOME

*You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived
You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left*

*Your heart can be empty because you can't see her Or you can be full of the love that you shared
You can turn your back on tomorrow
and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow
because of yesterday*

*You can remember she and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on
You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what he would want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.*

RUTHIE'S LIFE STORY

A TIME TO BE BORN

Ruthie Mae Ullit better known as "Ruth" was born November 17, 1940 in Charleston, South Carolina. She was the first born to Willie Jacob Marsh (deceased) and Maybell Estelle Barnwell-Marsh (deceased).

A TIME TO PLANT

Ruth received her education from Dorsey High School and Miami Northwestern High School.

She married Thomas Orzie Murray Sr. From this union they created (2) children, Thomas Jr. (deceased), Betty Ann and their adopted daughter, Latasha with loving arms. She divorced and later married Fernando Ullit.

A TIME TO LABOR

After 25 years, Ruth retired from the Orange Bowl as a Domestic Service Worker.

A TIME TO SERVE

At an early age, she accepted Christ in her life. She became a member of Antioch Missionary Baptist Church of Carol City. She continued her walk with God as a member of New Fellowship Christian Center until relocating with her family in Port St. Lucie, Florida. Outside of her serving God, Ruth was a member of the Eastern Stars as well as the Jubilee Singers.

A TIME TO BE "RUTH"

Being the eldest of 13 children 3 which preceded her in death John Marsh, Joseph Marsh and Robert Marsh, Ruth was the family matriarch. She played a major role in caring for everyone as her own. She had a big heart of gold. She never hesitated to say yes and made sure everyone at the table had food to eat. She was kindhearted and caring. Her love was as pure and as genuine as a diamond.
