Maxine's Life Story

Maxine H. Boynton was born December 11, 1944 to the late McArthur and Violet Hawkins in Miami, Florida she was the only child. She received her high school education from Carver Jr., Sr. High School graduating in the class of 1962. She received her BS degree from Bethune Cookman College. In addition, she received her Masters degree in Reading from NOVA University in 1977.

Maxine was the quintessential educator for over a period of 40 years. She received the Teacher of the Year Award from Tropical Elementary in 2003. She retired from the Miami Dade County Public School System in 2004.

Maxine married William Boynton in 1971. To this union, two children were born, William H. Boynton, III and Ahmad Boynton. Maxine was an avid bowler and received numerous trophies with her devoted team members. She was a dedicated member of Greater Bethel AME Church. She sang in the Naomi Symonette Mass Choir, past president, and served as a Trustee and received Emeritus status when her health started to decline.

"Enjoy your life, the one God has granted to you, for the day we are born we are on the road to our death. Only God know the time, and place, not man. It is a blessing to make someone happy, to care for them even with the smallest kindness. Praise God and keep smiling with happy remembrances; it will get you through the days because you are still alive."

She leaves to mourn her passing; her devoted husband of 50 years, William H. Boynton, Jr. sons, William H. Boynton III, (Didi); and Ahmad Boynton, one grandson, Vondarius Boynton, a sister-in-law, Williestine Williams, two devoted cousins Dr. Cathia Darling and Eveline Glover Hanks, as well as many other relatives and friends.
