His Story

A LIFE WELL LIVED

Lenoris Buoy Jr. was born on May 9, 1982 in Miami, Florida. He was the eldest of three children. Lenoris' fighting spirit allowed him to face and overcome many challenges medically and socially and live a full and happy life.

He was known affectionately by his family and friends as Lil Noris. He loved the outdoors and playing basketball with the kids in the neighborhood.

At an early age he attended church at Greater New Bethlehem with his beloved grandmother, Corene Buoy, who preceded him in death. He was educated in the Miami-Dade County Public School System. He graduated from Miami Edison Senior High School.

His room decor reflected his favorite sports teams, Miami Northwestern, and University of Miami in football and of course the Miami Heat basketball team. His love of Tupac was evident sometimes in his style of dress. He loved doo rags, hats, team jerseys, Dickie pants and high-top sneakers.

He loved to travel and attended many family reunions to Alabama, Georgia, Virginia, North Carolina, and cruises to Mexico, and Bahamas.

On March 23, 2022, God called Lenoris home to rest.

Fond and loving memories of Lenoris will be cherished by his parents: Lenoris Buoy, Sr., and Anita Albury; his stepparents: Chris and Beverly Albury; sister Alexandria N. Buoy; brother: Chris (Timika) Albury; nieces McKinley and Cameron Albury; aunts: Sharron D. Buoy, Carolyn Mills and Lynn Lawson; uncles: Jimmy, Phillip and Alvin Buoy; cousin/aunts: Vanessa Johnson and Maresa Cain; special cousins: Katonya Johnson and Jamal Collins; his caregivers at We Care Home Health, Ana, Sylvia, and Natalie and a host of family and friends.
