Committal & Interment

*Hillside Memorial Park
Laurinburg, North Carolina*

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.
Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us.*

Psalms 121: 1 KJV

Mr. Walter McLean was born April 23, 1923, to the late Frank McLean and Vinnie Dixon McLean in Scotland County, North Carolina. On Friday, October 18, 2019, Walter quietly slipped away into eternal rest.

He received his education in the Public-School System of Scotland County. Walter became a faithful member of Reedy Creek Baptist Church and accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. He was employed at J.P. Stevens for over thirty years, before his retirement. Walter loved being outdoors working in his garden and mowing the yard. He also enjoyed cutting hair along with repairing televisions and radios during his spare time.

In addition to his parents the late Frank and Vinnie Dixon McLean, Walter was preceded in death by his siblings; children, Daisy Covington, Sarah McLean, Walter Jr. McLean, France McLean, Furman Baldwin, and Vera Mason.

He leaves to cherish his profound memories: his wife Maggie McLean; children, Lavern (Maxine) Baldwin, John Walter (Joan) McLean, and Debra (Henry) McNeal; stepchildren, Mary Morrison, and Lavern Reed; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren; he is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends whom he loved dearly.
