Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me, I will be okay.
 Heaven is my home now, and this is where I'll stay.
 Don't cry for me, I'm where I belong.
 I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.
 Don't cry for me, it was just my time.
 But I will see you someday on the other side.
 Don't cry for me, I am not alone.
 The angels are with me to welcome me home.
 Don't cry for me, for I have no fear.
 All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears. Don't cry for me, this is not the end. I'll be waiting here for you, when we meet again.

Acknowledgments

The Hunt Family would like to acknowledge all prayers, kindness, and expressions of sympathy shown to us during our time of bereavement. May God continue to bless and keep each of you.

OBITUARY

Neil Arch Hunt was born on June 7, 1964, to the late Neil Sr. and Lorine Fairley Hunt in Scotland County, North Carolina. He departed this earthly life on Sunday November 10, 2019, at Scotland Memorial Hospital, in Laurinburg, NC.

Neil was educated in the Scotland County Public School System and graduated from Scotland High School in 1984. He was a hard and dedicated worker. Neil began working as a teenager driving school bus for Scotland County, until he moved to New York. He quickly obtained a job with Federal Pump Works in New York with his brother Henry Hunt.

Neil returned home and began working for the City of Laurinburg, until he began driving trucks, he drove his beloved truck until he became disabled.

In addition to his parents, Neil is preceded in death by his brothers, Henry Hunt, Willie Neil Hunt; sisters, Grace Jackson, Jacquelyn Christian; and Carolyn Fogg Hunt.

He leaves to mourn and cherish his loving memories: his lifelong partner, Eva Hines; four sons, Kevin Hunt, Antoine Hunt, Neil Hunt, III and Henry Hines; three daughters, Tenisha Hunt, Shakura Huntly (Brian), and Aliyah Hunt; a host of grandchildren; two sisters, Lillie Brunson, Christine Everett (Lacy); one sister-in-law, Thelma Hunt; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

You Judge Me Not

*You don't know me?
Why do you judge me?
You say you know me.
But do you really know me.
If I really open up and take the
Mask off, would I look like a Stranger to you?*

*Do you see me or...?
Do you see what you judge me by?
Know me deep down in my soul.
The strength of my soul
And beauty of that will help you to fly.*

*The wind that blows
With the softness that comes and goes
To make you go higher and higher.
You say you know me.
Why do you judge me, me, me?
Judge me not.*

~ By Sally McIntyre (Niece)
