She Is Gone

You can shed tears that she is gone or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back,
or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember her and only that she's gone,
or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn your back,
or you can do what she'd want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Celebrating the Life of

Mrs. Lottie Mae McCollum

April 25, 1931 ~ November 14, 2019

Just close your eyes and open your heart, and feel your worries and cares depart. Just yield yourself to the Father Above and let Him hold you secure in his love. For life on earth grows more involved with endless problems that can't be solved. But God only asks us to do our best then He will "take over" and finish the rest. So, when you are tired, discouraged, and blue there's always one door to "The House of Prayer" and you'll find God waiting to meet you there. The burdens that seemed too heavy to bear are lifted away on "The Wings of Prayer".

OBITUARY

Mrs. Lottie Mae McCollum, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Luther Murphy. She was born on April 25, 1931, in Scotland County.

She attended Laurinburg Institute in Scotland County. Lottie fell in love with the love of her life James McCollum and they were married and moved to Brooklyn, New York. They were married for sixty years at the time of James's passing.

Lottie worked as a secretary at the Griffin Shoe Polish Company and Par Metal Products as a keyboard operator. She retired in 1993 and moved back to her hometown of Laurinburg with her husband. Lottie was a faithful and loving member of G.W. Ware Choir and a member of the Senior Group #2. You would always find her volunteering her services at the local nursing homes, where she would be spreading God's word with her keyboard.

Her passion for helping others led to her becoming part of the WEWO WALKERS TEAM where she was the co-chairman. She along with her other team members helped raise money each year for Relay for Life.

She was the baby girl out of 10 sisters and brothers. Lottie was preceded in death by her son, John Wesley; husband, James McCollum; daughter, Linda McCollum; and grandson, Varnell McCollum.

Lottie is survived by her children: Larry (Nadine) McCollum, Renee Baker, and Patricia (James) Braswell; grandchildren, Dwayne McCollum, Donnell Henderson, Corey Baker, Dupree Braswell, Keenan Baker, Danzell Braswell, and Shantiqua Liverman; 10 great-grandchildren; two sisters-in-law, Evelyn Murphy, and Jonie Mae Bodie; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
