

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too

When tomorrow starts with out me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And petted me with her hand.

I thought about our lives together;
I know you must be sad.
I thought of all the love we shared,
And all the fun we had.

So When Tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart

Obituary

Christine Walker was the second of eight children born to the late Percy and Annie G. Walker on December 29, 1950, in Harlem, New York. Christine transitioned to be with the Lord on February 10, 2021.

Christine married Mr. John Wallace McNair, and from this union, they had a son, Rameek. Christine was a person with a big heart, strong, energetic, and always full of life. Christine was always classy, sassy, fashionable, and sophisticated as her family and friends always knew her as “Ms. Diva, Diana Ross, and Alexis Carrington from Dynasty.” Her beautiful smile lit everywhere she went.

Christine grew up in the Lower East Side “LES.” She attended Fashion Institute High School and was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church. Christine moved with her family to Hempstead, New York.

Christine attended Manhattan College and worked in Off Track Betting “OTB.” While working at OTB, she attended Nursing School, became a Registered Nurse, and worked in Bellevue Hospital. Christine relocated and continued her nursing career at Emory University, residing in Lithonia, Georgia, until her retirement. Christine enjoyed her retirement traveling, playing bridge with her bridge club, and spending time with her granddaughters.

Christine was predeceased by her parents, Percy and Annie Walker, her sisters, Joann, Roberta, and Barbara, her brothers, Larry and James, her nephew, Kareem, and her nieces, Monique and Yonique.

Christine leaves precious memories to her devoted friend and husband Wallace; her pride and joy son, Rameek, and daughter-in-love, Vanessa; her lovely granddaughters, Nyla, Laila, and Ava Rose; one sister, Annie Walker; one brother, Alan Walker; two brothers-in-law, Charles and Sylvia, and Thermon and Eldorada. Christine also leaves her little precious companion (dog) Rosa, nephews, nieces, and a host of other family members and friends.
