

Pleasure's Legacy

Pleasure T. Coleman Sr. was born on July 3, 1987 in Wichita, KS to Charlesetta Berry and Timothy Coleman. He was the youngest of his mother's children. As a young child, Pleasure enjoyed playing football and riding his bike. Pleasure excelled in the Wichita Public Schools and went on to attend Wichita State University and Friends University where he received several degrees. Pleasure worked at Spirit Aerosystems where he also received training and he earned HVAC certification from WTI.

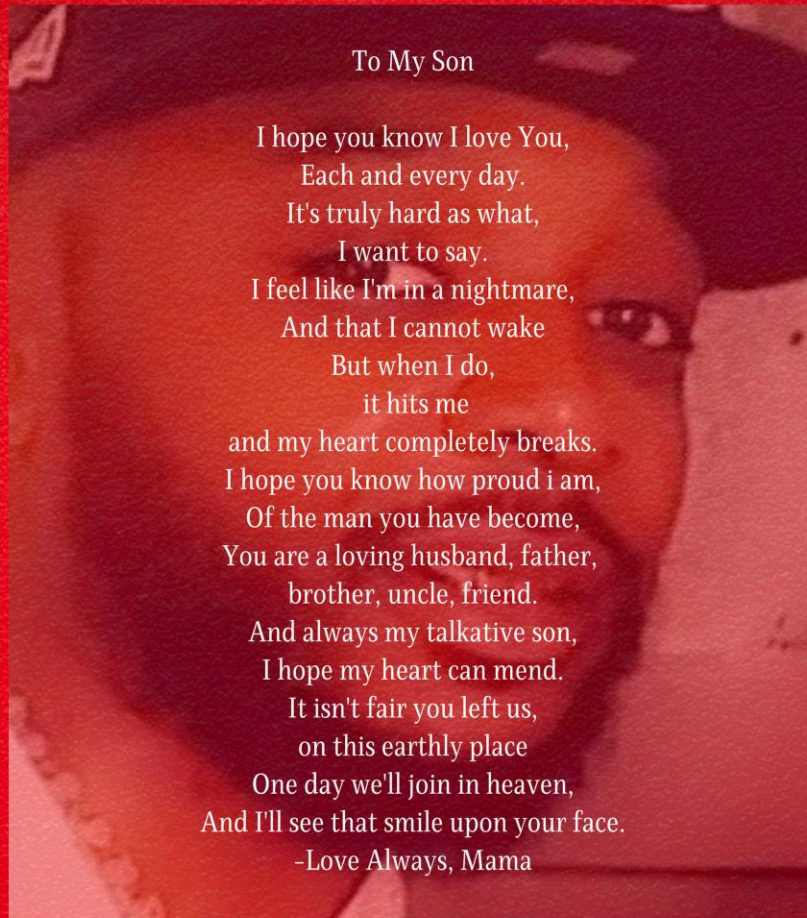

Pleasure was a jokester. He loved to scare people with a mask from the movie "Scream". He loved nice things; from his clothes, shoes, jewelry and gold grill to his cars and SUVs with nice stereo systems.

Pleasure became a parent at a young age and grew to be a loving God fearing father and husband.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents Eugene Coleman, Mary Coleman and Charles Berry; his nephew Charles Berry-Coleman.

Pleasure leaves to mourn his passing his wife Cyndra and their children Kavaeh, Palaysia and Cairo as well as his other children Pleasure Jr., Kevin, Harmony and De'Zire; mother Charlesetta Berry (Tracy); father Timothy Coleman; sisters Keesha Grant and Tamara Coleman; brother Kevin Grant; grandmother Kathy Miller-Jones; mother and father- in-law Cynthia and Ulase ; numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, or relatives and friends.

Pleasure will be deeply missed and forever loved!

To My Son

I hope you know I love You,
Each and every day.
It's truly hard as what,
I want to say.
I feel like I'm in a nightmare,
And that I cannot wake
But when I do,
it hits me
and my heart completely breaks.
I hope you know how proud i am,
Of the man you have become,
You are a loving husband, father,
brother, uncle, friend.
And always my talkative son,
I hope my heart can mend.
It isn't fair you left us,
on this earthly place
One day we'll join in heaven,
And I'll see that smile upon your face.
-Love Always, Mama

Dear Husband

I love you, but I didn't know how greatly I loved you, until you left me so abruptly. Suddenly little arguments never mattered, goodbye kisses should have lasted longer, and times spent together should have been forever. All I have left of you is memories of good times and our precious children that remind me of you. You left me with an unfillable emptiness. How can I be alone after having a soulmate for the last ten years. You were the glue that stuck everything together. Now I'm broken and can't be fixed. I was left to pick up the pieces of our kids shattered hearts with no understanding. My dear sweet husband, I will forever be in grief until we meet again.
