

But ask the animals, and they will teach you, or the birds in the sky, and they will tell you; or speak to the earth, and it will teach you, or let the fish in the sea inform you. Which of all these does not know that the hand of the Lord has done this? In his hand is the life of every creature and the breath of all mankind.

Job 12:7-10 (NIV)

Celebrating THE LIFE OF

JOHN DAVID ENSMINGER

March 22, 1938 - August 13, 2020

John David Ensminger was born in McGehee, Arkansas to the late John and Helen Margaret Ensminger on March 22, 1938. David passed away August 13, 2020.

David lived a life full of friendships, family, and adventure. He graduated High school in 1956 in McGehee, Arkansas and attended college at the University of Arkansas at Monticello. Through his years at UAM he gained many lifelong friendships that endured to the end. David was a passionate math professor and basketball referee. His greatest adventure started April 10, 1969 with his marriage to predeceased Eloise M. Ensminger. They raised four children, Marty, Cindy, Fred, and Steve. They built several small businesses together as well as many other entrepreneurial pursuits, all with great success. David had many friends whom he enjoyed having a good laugh and hunt with. As the patriarch of his family, he cared for and provided well by living and instructing in responsibility, honesty, hard work and integrity. He was an avid outdoorsman. He loved the beautiful state of Arkansas and enjoyed hunting, fishing and flying his plane. His second greatest adventure started with his marriage to Sue Smith Ensminger July 11, 2016. He is survived by his wife, Sue Smith Ensminger and her children, Shelly Grimes and Tyler Griffin. His four children, Marty, Cindy, Fred, and Steve, and eight grandchildren, Fred, Amanda, Emily, Drew, Jennifer, Lindsey, Balin, and Jacob, and four great grandchildren, Amelia, Jacob, Evelyn and Kevin.

The memory of a good person is a blessing-Proverbs 10:7.

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.*

*Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our
trespasses,
as we forgive those who
trespass against us.*

*And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.*

*For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.*

Amen.
