

Celebrating
THE LIFE OF

www.SmithFamilyCares.com

GERTRUD IDA ZAJAC

June 7, 1927 - September 14, 2020

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

Gertrud Ida Zajac, 93, of Beebe passed away Monday, September 14, 2020 at her home. She was born June 7, 1927 in Mellingen, East Germany. She grew up in Weimar, which was under Nazi control during World War II. In May of 1957, she and her daughter, Gisela, immigrated to the United States. Gertrud received her American citizenship on March 19, 1963 and worked in the printing industry until she retired in 1986.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Sylvester Zajac. Also preceding her in death are her parents, Ida and George Zimmermann along with eight siblings Hans, Paul, Heinz, George, Annie, Martha, Marie, and Liesse Lotta. She is survived by her daughter, Gisela and her husband Jim Allen, grandchildren Ryan and Janet Allen and Cari and Tate Rector. She is also survived by four great grandchildren whom she loved dearly, Gracie and Ellie Allen and Brody and Reed Rector.

We would like to thank Arkansas Hospice for their care during the past month. We would also like to thank Kevin Girtman and his staff at Beebe Family Clinic who she thought the world of.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to Arkansas Hospice(www.arkansashospice.org), Arkansas Alzheimer's Association (act.alz.org), or American Cancer Society (donate3.cancer.org).