

God's Garden
God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
and he saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain
He knew you would never get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyes,
and whispered "Peace be thine."
It breaks our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Maedean Johnson, 79, of Beebe went to be with the Lord, on Wednesday, September 16, 2020.

She was born May 24, 1941 to Mae and Milton Clare. She married Scott Johnson on December 24, 1958 and they had one daughter.

She was a 1959 graduate of Beebe High School, and became an LPN. In addition to being a compassionate nurse, she also served alongside her husband in the gospel ministry for 57 years.

Maedean was an example of true service. She touched so many lives and is loved and cherished by all who knew her.

Maedean joins in her heavenly home, her parents and many others who have preceded her.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband of 61 years, Scott Johnson, daughter Diane Johnson Daws and husband Lonnie, two grandchildren Hunter Collie (Leah) and Samantha Hooper (Greg), two great grandsons, Samuel and Jakob Hooper, many cousins and friends.
